DAILY GAZETTE.

Distressing Condition of Affairs in Charleston.

The Boston Journal publishes an extract from a letter written by a Charlestonian to his brother in Northboro, Mass., which indicates the feeling toward the north, as well as the deplorable state of affairs in the city of the secessionists:

I never thought I should witness such times. We are in the midst of a revolution. Every man is enrolled—all kinds of business at a stand—no shipping in port—all northern communication cut off—custom house officers resigned their office—no cotton coming in. I have ten hands walking about doing nothing. I have them to feed. There are twelve hundred drays in the city and not ten a day get one load. All the banks stopped—our state notes out of the state not worth one cent. We are in a starving condition—no meat to be got, even at twenty-five cents a pound.

I am in hopes the abolitionists of the north will be paid in their own coin. There will be no compromise—it is out of the question. The Lincoln party will commence the war as soon as he takes his chair and we are all prepared for him. It is impossible for him to put us down—ten years' war can't do it. But if I had thought such times as these were coming last April, I could have sold my negroes for thirty thousand dollars cash—but now they are not worth five hundred dollars. I am tired of writing; I am so much excited at present I cannot picture our situation. I have thirty-five negroes to feed—drawing nothing. All the Boston steamers have stopped—the New York steamers all stopped.

The New York Tribune of Tuesday has the following:

The state of things which the leaders of the revolution in South Carolina have brought upon themselves is, we suppose, such, in many respects, as is scarcely suspected elsewhere. We learn, for instance, through a private letter from a perfectly respectable source in Charleston, that the other day a body of twenty minute men from the country entered a large private house in that city and demanded dinner. A dinner was given them, and then they demanded ten dollars each, saying that they had not come to Charleston for nothing; and the money was furnished also.

Another fact of still greater significance has come to our knowledge. Gov. Pickens has written to an officer of high rank in the United States Army, a native of South Carolina, who is loyal to the stars and stripes, requesting him to come to Charleston and protect them from the mob. The officer has declined, saying that he can serve his country elsewhere, and that he does not wish to have any part in the proceedings now going forward in that state.

The Washington correspondent of the same paper writes:

It is stated that much disaffection exists among the German and Irish volunteer troops, who are taken away from their business and homes to perform military duty, while the secession leaders are enjoying the luxury of treason comfortably, and without any personal exposure.

The Baltimore Clipper has information of a similar character. It says:

We learn by the fresh arrival of a stone cutter from Columbia, S. C., at his home in Washington city, that a sad and sorrowful state of things prevails there. Business and work of all kinds are in a paralyzed condition owing to the excitement existing among the people about the approaching inauguration of what they term a hostile government. The talk of war has caused everything else to be suspended. He represents the people as excited almost to derangement, and relates a case where a fellow-mechanic of his had been completely crazed and made an inmate of a lunatic asylum by the warlike demonstrations around him. Nearly every mechanic employed on the capitol of the state has left, and those remaining behind will follow in a few days. Other mechanics employed elsewhere will soon take their departure, and unless times shall soon improve, many of the native mechanics and laboring force of the state will seek employment elsewhere.

FARM MORTGAGE RIOT AT PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.—We understand that the excitement under which the farm mortgagors are laboring broke out into an open demonstration, at Praire du Chien last Wednesday. A lawyer named Small, from Milwaukee, was hanging around that place some days, preparing abstracts and minutes at the county offices to commence the foreclosure of some 30 of the farm mortgages. His object being discovered a large body of men took peaceable possession of him, and shut him up, burned his papers, and kept him close till the next train started, when he was put on board and "ticketed through" to Milwaukee.—Madison Argus.

THE UNION FEELING IN WASHINGTON.—Union flags flutter now from every available position about Washington, showing unmistakably the public sentiment here.—Among the multitude of such demonstrations we notice a beautiful American flag flung to the breeze from the residence of Capt. Lem. Towers, of Company A. Washington Light Infantry. We believe that, with a single exception, every military company in Washington has, in some form or other, exhibited its love for the Union and its readiness to sustain law and order in this city. All praise to the patriotic citizen soldiery of Washington.—Washington Star.

The New York Tribune's Georgia correspondent says that a northern man is recognized at the south by his clean clothes, and that the fact is enough to condemn him in the eyes of all southerners.

February Appointments.
Dr. V. C. Price,
ANALYTICAL PHYSICIAN,
OF BUFFALO, N. Y.,

WILL be for consultation on diseases generally, at Janesville, Ford House, on Friday and Saturday forenoon, the 15th and 16th of February; Woodstock, Feb. 17th and 18th; Whitewater, Feb. 14th; Racine, Feb. 11th.

Dr. Price devotes all of his time to the cure of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Fits, Nervous Maladies, Female Difficulties, Consumption, Throat, Liver, Heart, and all Chronic diseases.

Our practice of seventeen years standing differs from all others, founded on truth, no trifling with human existence, sacrificing life by experiments. We know on examination the cause of disease and remedies needed to remove it, not by guessing but by knowledge. No poisons or harsh medicines to ruin the constitution, no making sick to make well, tearing down to build up, giving encouragement without a prospect, no abandoning business or starving, nor coming once never to be seen again. We are regular every few weeks in our visits, frank in our opinions, honest in our dealings, and moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, or to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure seven out of ten pronounced incurable. We respectfully request those who have tried this respectable physician, that scientific doctor, boasted and advertised medicines and doctors till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It costs nothing, as consultation is free. dec31daw

Exciting Debate in the House.

There was an exciting debate in the house of representatives on Saturday on the navy appropriation bill. Pryor moved to strike out the appropriation for the officers of the navy, on the ground that the army and navy were to be used for the purpose of coercing the states. He accompanied his motion with inflammatory remarks, when Mr. Clemens, who represents the western part of Virginia, commenced a reply, and was called to order by Garnett, another Virginian, from the extreme eastern part of the state, who denounced the government as a military despotism. There was considerable excitement, chiefly among southern members. Mr. Sherman's policy is to allow no debate on the state of the country until the army and navy bills have been passed, believing that when discussion is commenced that there may be no opportunity to press them to a vote. This policy is resisted by the secessionists who want no appropriations to the army and navy. Mr. Pryor's motion was defeated.—Mr. Sherman gave notice that as soon as these necessary measures were disposed of, debate would be allowed and that the republicans would be ready to meet them.

A Photograph of Toombs.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune thus portrays Toombs, the Georgia traitor:

To get an idea of the man and his speech, your readers must imagine a big obese, swarthy looking savage—a perfect specimen of a plantation overseer, who rolls about with a whip in hand, with a hoarse, gruff voice, ordering the hands like so many dogs, and they have a faint picture of the Georgia Senator. Now, listen to his roar in harsh, cracked, thick, gutteral cadences,—pitching his voice in the middle of every sentence, so loud that he could be heard all over a plantation, a league in extent; dropping it at each end of the sentence to a conversational tone, and rattling and jumbling his words together so fast and thick as to defy the swiftest phonographer to keep up, and most practiced ear to understand all he is saying. All this time he is swinging his arms and head violently, and jerking about him and looking at the republican senators with wrathful visage, conveying the idea:—"Don't I wish you were niggers. How I'd flail your backs, you rascals. I'd limber your stiff necks. I'd give you hark from the Toombs, you contumacious villains." If it was not for his wholesome fear of Ben Wade, it is believed that he would attempt to practice his plantation discipline upon some of the physically feeble senators on the republican side.

New York for the Union.

The following resolutions were introduced into the New York legislature on the 10th. In the assembly they were adopted—ayes 117, nays 2. In the senate, ayes 28, nays 1. Gov. Morgan immediately telegraphed them to the President:

WHEREAS, The insurgent state of South Carolina, after seizing the post office, custom house, moneys and fortifications of the federal government, has, by firing into a vessel ordered by the government to convey troops and provisions to Fort Sumpter, virtually declared war; and whereas, the forts and property of the United States government in Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana, have been unlawfully seized, with hostile intentions; and whereas, further, senators and congressmen avow and maintain their treasonable acts, therefore Resolved, If the senate concur, that the legislature of New York, profoundly impressed with the value of the Union, and determined to preserve it unimpaired, hails with joy the recent firm, dignified and patriotic special message of the president of the United States. That we tender to him, through the chief magistrate of our own state, WHATEVER AID IN MEN AND MONEY MAY BE REQUIRED TO ENABLE HIM TO ENFORCE THE LAWS AND UPHOLD THE AUTHORITY OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, and in defence of the more perfect Union which has conferred prosperity and happiness on the American people. Renewing the pledge given and redeemed by our forefathers, we are ready to devote our fortunes, our lives and our sacred honors, in upholding the Union and the constitution. If the senate concur, that the Union loving citizens and representatives of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee, who labor with devoted courage and patriotism to withhold their states from the vortex of secession are entitled to the gratitude and admiration of the whole world.

Resolved, If the senate concur, that the governor be requested to forward forthwith copies of the foregoing resolutions to the president of the nation, and the governors of all the states of the Union.

THE ICE BOAT A SUCCESS.—We learn that Wiard's Ice Boat was tried at Prairie du Chien last week, and that it was a success. As soon as the engine was put in motion the boat started, and soon attained a speed of twenty miles an hour. The trial was made under the supervision of Mr. T. C. Sherman, of Ohio, a gentleman who is materially interested in the enterprise. Mr. Wiard was not there, being at present in New York. We understand that it is contemplated to make a trip from Prairie du Chien to St. Paul, within a few days.

IRON PATRIOTISM.—D. B. Ward, the Napoleon of lake steamboat owners, writes to the Detroit Advertiser that he has iron sufficient for 700 heavy cannon, and 20,000 stand of rifles, which he will sell to the state of Michigan on twenty years time, if they will make it up in guns to be used to preserve the Union. He says farther, that rather than have the constitution altered to favor slavery and corruption, he would make it an unconditional contribution to the cause of freedom.

A letter from Melbourne mentions that a solid cake of gold, worth £9,500, the produce of the crushing of only ten tons of quartz from a reef near Inglewood, had been sold to the Bank of New South Wales. This Bank has also purchased at Sandhurst a cake weighing 501 ounces, the product of 35 tons of quartz, and it is affirmed that the same reef will produce £30,000 for many years to come.

Referred to committee on judiciary.

Sen. Maxon's joint resolution for relief of farm mortgagors was called up. Sen. Gill moved to amend so as to include cities and villages that have pledged their credit to build railroads.

Sen. Gill's amendmennt was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Bean, A. I. Bennett, Geo. Bennett, Brown, Cary, Cole, Crane, Cummings, Decker, Ferguson, Foot, Gill, Kelsey, Phillips, Utley, Worthington—16.

By Senator Hazelton—Requiring owners of threshing machines to guard against accidents.

By Senator Gill—To repeal sec. 2, chap. 197, of the general laws of 1859, in relation to evidence in certain cases.

In the ASSEMBLY, Mr. Rugee offered a resolution that members be furnished with four daily and 28 weekly newspapers. Laid over.

Mr. Townsend offered a resolution to furnish each member and officer with seven dailies or their equivalent in weeklies. Laid ever under rule.

Mr. Ramsay, dem., offered a resolution, that whereas, the Governor had not expressed his opinion on the constitutionality of the personal liberty act that the opinion of the attorney general be asked on that question. Laid over.

Mr. Pickett, rep., offered a resolution that both houses meet in joint convention on the 3d Monday in January to elect a United States Senator. Laid over under the rule.

By Mr. Thomas—Whereas, certain states have seceded from the Union and apprehensions are felt of civil war, that Hon. John F. Potter be requested to return immediately to Washington, &c. The chair decided the resolution out of order, and returned it to Mr. Thomas.

Mr. Graham offered the following:

WHEREAS, The sentiments and feeling of the people of this state relative to their estimate of the value of the Union, and adhesion to the national compact and duties under it, are misrepresented, whereby jealousies are created and fostered. Therefore Resolved by the assembly, "the senate concurring," That the people of this state have not faltered, nor wavered in their devotion to the constitution, nor in attachment to the Union from the hour of their admission; but, on the contrary, have continued to regard them with increased ardor and affection, as time and experience have developed and manifested their fitness to secure the prosperity, happiness and liberty of the country and its citizens.

Resolved, That the determination of the people of this state, to adopt and sanction all lawful measures to prevent the extension of slavery or involuntary servitude beyond its present limits in this republic, is unaltered and unalterable, and is the natural and legitimate result of that liberal and enlightened policy of education which has been adopted by the state and which is so admirably adapted to secure in the public mind that deep and abiding love of liberty and justice which begets an abhorrence of slavery, and seeks to be absolved from all responsibility for its continuance, while it prompts to a faithful discharge of all constitutional obligations, and will not sanction nor tolerate any unconstitutional interference with the rights of the states where slavery exists, but concedes and acknowledges the constitutional right of their own citizens to judge and decide for themselves, relative to its continuance within their respective borders.

Resolved, That while the people of this state disapprove of the act known as the fugitive slave law, and earnestly desire and insist upon its modification in such manner as to guard free persons from being enslaved under its provisions, and so as to secure the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and a trial by jury in the state where found, to all persons claimed under it, as having escaped from labor or service due in some other state, they recognize the constitutional obligation to surrender fugitives from service, and will acquiesce in and sustain any law in harmony with the constitution, and the humanizing spirit of the age.

Resolved, That we regard the constitution as the palladium of our liberties; the government of the United States as the government of the people: the Union, one and inseparable, its existence perpetual, and any attempt, by secession or otherwise, to dissolve the Union as treason, not only against the government, but against the liberties of mankind.

Resolved, That we have learned with great satisfaction that the people of Kansas have adopted a constitution which is entirely in accordance with the spirit of the free institutions of our country, and our representatives in congress are hereby requested to endeavor to procure the passage of such laws as may be necessary to admit that state into the Union without further delay.

By Mr. Bailey of Richland Co., a resolution that we tender our brethren of the south, as an olive branch of peace, the constitution of the United States and the Chicago platform. (Laughter.) Laid over under the rules.

Mr. Lain's resolution inviting the resident clergy to officiate as chaplains came up.

Mr. Jared Warner, of Grant, opposed the resolution. He protested against it as unwise, unconstitutional and impolitic. It was a violation of that article which says no money shall be paid from the treasury for the support of religion. This was an indirect call upon the treasury for that purpose. And he would, in a measure, be coerced by the adoption of this resolution, be obliged to attend upon religious ceremonies in a way that was an infringement upon his constitutional rights. Those who want to enjoy the privileges can do so, but he asked to have the same courtesy extended to him that he was ready to extend to others. They had got along pretty well without prayers, so far, and he did not believe that they could do better with them. He stood on his constitutional rights, and asked members to extend to him the same rights that he was ready to extend to others.

The resolution was adopted—68 to 22.

A resolution providing that the cost of such services should not exceed $250, was laid over under the rules.

A message from the senate having been received, containing a joint resolution to put the state on a "war footing,"—

Mr. Frisbee moved to take up the same, which prevailed, and the resolution was passed.

The resolution reads as follows:

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That a joint select committee, consisting of three on the part of the senate and five on the part of the assembly, be appointed to enquire into the expdiency of immediately putting the state upon a war footing, and if deemed by such committee necessary and expedient, that they report a bill for that purpose at their earliest convenience.

Mr. Graham introduced a resolution to temporarily admit Mr. Mitchell to a seat during the pending of his contest with Mr. Humphrey. Adopted.

Adjourned till Monday at 10 o'clock.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 11.

The following passed at the Alabama state convention, to-day:

An ordinance to dissolve the Union between the state of Alabama and other states, under the compact and style of the United States of America.

Whereas, The election of Lincoln and Hamlin by a sectional party, avowedly hostile to the domestic institutions, and peace and security of the people of Alabama, following upon the heels of many and dangerous infringements of the constitution of the United States, by many of the states and people of the northern states, is a political wrong of such a character as to justify the people of the State of Alabama in the adoption of prompt and decided measures for their future peace and security. Therefore,

Be it Resolved and Ordered, By the people of Alabama, in convention assembled, that the state of Alabama now withdraw from the Union known as the United States of America, and henceforth cease to be one of the states, and is, and of right ought to be, a sovereign, independent state. And

Be it further Ordained and Ordered, By the people of the state of Alabama, in convention assembled, that all the powers over the territories of the state, and over the people thereof, heretofore delegated to the government of the United States of America, be, and they are hereby withdrawn from the said government, and are hereby resumed and vested in the people of Alabama, and, as it is the desire and purpose of the people of Alabama, to meet the slaveholding states of the south who approve of such a purpose, in order to favor a separation and found a permanent government on the principles of the United States government, And be it also

Resolved, By the people of Alabama in convention assembled, that the people of the states of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri, be, and they are hereby invited to meet the state of Alabama, by their delegates, in convention on the 4th day of February next, in Montgomery, Alabama, for the purpose of consultation with other states as to the most effectual mode of securing concerted action in whatever measures may be deemed most desirable for the common peace and security. And be it further

Resolved, That the president of the convention be and is hereby instructed to forward a copy of the foregoing preamble, ordinance and resolutions to the governments of the several states named in the said resolutions.

Done by the people of Alabama in convention assembled at Montgomery, this 11th day of January, 1861.

The Palmetto ordinance and resolutions were adopted by ayes 61, nays 39.

TO THE POINT.—The Louisville Journal says:

The Charleston Mercury advises the immediate importation of a couple of millions of Africans, whom it calls "cannibals," into South Carolina. But isn't there some danger that so many cannibals might some morning eat up for breakfast all the white folks in that little state, and then start off toward Florida for their dinner!

"THIRTY-TWO" GUNS.—The Charleston Courier says:

Col. John Cunningham having been ordered by Gov. Pickens to take command of the arsenal, completed this order yesterday (Sunday) about half-past one o'clock. At that hour, Capt. Humphrey gave up the command to Col. Cunningham. The federal flag was lowered after a salute of thirty-two guns, the state troops having been drawn up in order, presenting arms. The Palmetto flag was then attached, and run up with a salute of one gun for South Carolina. The arsenal is now in command of Col. Cunningham, of the 17th regiment.

The Charleston Mercury calls upon Florida to seize the forts at Pensacola and Key West, claiming that they command the whole gulf trade, and adds that once in the possession of these, "the commerce of the north in the gulf will fall an easy prey to our bold privateers, and California gold will pay all such little expenses on our part."

FALL OF A BRIDGE FULL OF GIRLS.—A narrow iron girder bridge, over the canal at Manchester, Eng., recently fell, with some 150 girls upon it, who were looking at some public show. Snapping the stone from the piers on each side, the bridge fell without turning over, the center only breaking after it had reached the bottom. Only one life was lost.

Gov. Perry, of Florida, reached home last week from the north, where he purchased 1,000 Hayward rifles and 5,000 of Minie muskets, for the use of the state.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

WASHINGTON Jan. 12.

At the asembling of the Senate, there were a thousand ladies and twelve hundred gentlemen present, including the various members of the diplomatic corps, to listen to Mr. Seward. Mr. Gwin moved that the senate proceed to the special order, the consideration of the President's message, when Mr. Seward took the floor.

In the house, Mr. Clark of Mo., endeavored to present a resolution enquiring into the occupation of the St. Louis post office and sub-treasury buildings, but objections being made, the resolution was not received.

The Mississippi delegation withdrew from the house in consequence of the secession of that state from the Union.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.

Capt. Todd, in command of Ft. Monroe in Mobile, says he has plenty of men, guns and ammunition to prevent any hostile force approaching Mobile.

There is no confirmation here of the Charleston rumor that Maj. Anderson proposes to evacuate the forts. The voluntary military organizations in this city for its protection are increasing rapidly, and last night numbered several hundred Union men.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 12.

Mr. Girerdon, a member of the secession convention, went to Fort Sumpter this morning and held a private parley with Maj. Anderson. All kinds of rumors prevail as to the cause of the sending of the flag of truce by the seceders last night. Some say that disaffection exists among Maj. Anderson's men, and others that a surrender of the fort is contemplated and that it will be evacuated. It is believed that negotiations at Washington are going on for a peaceable surrender of the forts and for the cessation of warlike attempts. Good authority credit this opinion.

LATER.

The steamer Excellent has come into port with the news that the sloop-of-war Brooklyn is off the harbor. This is certain, that Col. Haynes on the part of South Carolina, and Lient. Hall on the part of Maj. Anderson, have left for Washington with proposals and to obtain further instructions.

PENSACOLA, Jan. 13th.

Fort ——— and the navy yard were taken yesterday by the Alabama and Florida troops.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13th.

The steamer Star of the West steamed down the harbor early this morning, landed her troops at Governor's Island, and returned to her dock.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.

Mr. Seward's speech has had a soothing effect, and is doing much good. Mr. Crittenden declared it was in the right direction, and patriotic and statesmanlike.

It was announced to-day that no reinforcements would be sent at present to Ft. Sumpter, but as they are needed. I have good reason to believe it the settled purpose of the administration to vindicate the flag of the Union by sending vessels as soon as the department can furnish them. The chief difficulty is the scarcity of vessels.

Gov. Pickens, of South Carolina, having a balance of $3000 due him as late minister to Russia, sent a check for it, and the department honored it by sending him a draft on the Charleston sub-treasury, which has been seized by the state.]

Senators Polk and Green, of Missouri, addressed a note to Secretary Holt, yesterday, asking him why the sub-treasury at St. Louis was guarded by U. S. troops. Mr. Holt replied that he would explain if they called upon him personally and not otherwise.

HALIFAX, Jan. 14.

A fire Saturday night destroyed 59 establishments in Hollis, George and Prince streets, including the American consulate, the newspaper offices and other public buildings. One man is known to be killed; many more injured.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent asserts that an expedition is fitting out in this city to seize California steamers. A schooner has already been chartered in New Orleans to proceed to the Isthmus and prevent the departure of the steamer from Aspinwall, when, hoisting the Palmetto flag, she will cruise in the neighborhood.

Several vessels in the North river were badly crushed by the floating ice, and the southern steamers arriving to day had much difficulty in getting into their docks.

BOSTON, Jan. 13.

The America arrived this afternoon much iced up.

The thermometer this morning stood at 8 degrees below zero, and in the suburbs at 15 degrees below.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 13.

The meeting of the friends of the Union yesterday was the largest meeting ever held in the city. Business generally was suspended; stores and private residences decorated with flags. Strong resolutions were adopted, in favor of the Union and preservation of the government, also in favor of Crittenden's proposition as a basis of settlement of existing troubles, deprecating coercion, and recommending a convention of the states.

Handbills signed by six leading republicans, including F. P. Blair, advising republicans not to participate in the Union meeting, were posted in the streets before noon.

A state convention bill has been warmly discussed in the legislature during the past three days, but no action taken.

RICHMOND, Jan. 12.

The house passed the convention bill, with the amendment referring the question to a vote of the people of the state. There is increased excitement at the capital to-day.

Luther C. Carter, republican, will claim a re-election to congress from the Long Island (New York) district, it having been discovered that whereas many votes were given to Egbert T. Smith, Breckinridge democrat, nearly all were returned for Edward H. Smith, Douglas fusion, whose majority would be whittled down to nothing by taking these votes away. He is at work getting the evidence to establish this claim.

POPULAR MAJORITIES.—The vote at the late presidential election in the seven northwestern states was as follows:

	Lincoln.	Douglas.	Breckinridge.	Bell.
Ohio,	231,610	188,230	11,405	12,197
Indiana,	139,013	115,166	12,295	5,339
Illinois,	172,595	160,823	2,390	4,951
Michigan,	88,479	65,052	......	......
Wisconsin,	86,110	65,051	888	161
Iowa,	70,234	55,043	1,033	1,756
Minnesota,	22,253	11,878	743	44
	810,294	660,243	28,763	20,438

The grand total was 1,519,738, which is 300,000 votes more than were given in all the fifteen slave states. Douglas, a defeated candidate, received as many votes in these northwestern states as Breckinridge, the special candidate of the slaveholders, received in all the Union.

Several slaves have been arrested at Manchester, near Richmond, Va., on the charge of insubordination and conspiring to form an insurrection.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SUSPICION OF MURDER.—Our city was a good deal excited yesterday by the discovery of the dead body of Michael McFarland and the rumor that he had been murdered. The body was found about 1 o'clock, and brought to the office of the police justice, where a coroner's jury, composed of J. M. Haselton, George A. Young, T. H. Hornick Dexter Tracy, George Graham and P. H. Grant was empanneled, and a post mortem examination conducted by Drs. Treat, Palmer and Jones. McFarland, according to the statement of his wife, as given to us, was at the house of a neighbor, and called from there between 8 and 9 o'clock, Saturday evening by two or three persons. His failure to return to his home at his usual time, and a report carried to his wife of his having been seen in the company of those, or other men, at a later hour and remonstrating against any trouble with them, alarmed her fears, and induced a search for him, which was continued during the night and until the next day when he was found dead under the bank of the river near the foot of Academy street.

The postmortem examination was made yesterday afternoon, and the jury discharged until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the examination was commenced at the court house.

As we shall report the testimony taken before the jury, we refrain from publishing any of the many rumors concerning the case or the circumstances which are supposed to warrant the suspicion of murder.

John Moran, Michael Flaherty and James Horan were yesterday arrested to await an examination as implicated in the suspected murder.

☞ We observe by the Scientific American that Mr. Bootman of this city has secured a patent for his very ingenious invention of an instrument by which organs, pianos and melodians can be played by persons totally inexperienced in music. We gave a discription of it some months ago. It is somewhat upon the principle of the old fashioned music box, but can be set to any tune which has been written.

DR. JEWETT'S LECTURES.—Through a misunderstanding it was announced yesterday that Dr. Jewett's lectures would be free, and a collection ($7,25) was taken—a small item towards defraying the necessary expense; and the executive committee of the Janesville Temperance League are reluctantly compelled to charge the small admittance fee, of 10 cents per lecture, or 25 cts. for the course of three lectures, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week at Lappin's Hall, as per original arrangement, a mere nominal sum, compared with the intrinsic value of these lectures.

MEETING OF FARM MORTGAGE LEAGUE.—There will be a meeting of the general league of farm mortgagors on the Mil. & Miss. R. R., at Madison, on Tuesday evening, the 22d inst.

DISTRIBUTING TRACTS.—We understand that the members of the Sabbath School connected with the Baptist Church canvass the city each month as a Tract distributing committee.

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—The meeting of the fire department for the election of officers for the coming year will be held this evening at 7½ o'clock, at Water Witch engine house.

Every member of the department is requested to be punctual in his attendance.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. NO. 3.—A special meeting of this company will be held at the engine house on Tuesday evening, Jan'y 15th, at 7 o'clock. Every member is requested to be in attendance.

D. C. WARD, Foreman.
WM. M. BIRT, Secretary.

☞ Do not forget Dr. Jewett's lecture this evening at Lappin's Hall, at 7 o'clock. Single tickets, 10 cents; for the course of three lectures, 25 cents—to be had at the book stores and at the door.

Reliable information from Georgia, states the seizure of the forts in that state was not demanded by a popular pressure, but was a premeditated scheme of the leaders to excite the populace.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

ONE OF THE QUESTIONS.—A correspondent asks an exchange "If Kentucky goes out of the Union before the 4th of March, can Abraham Lincoln, who is a native of that state, be inaugurated President under a constitution which provides that the President must be a native born citizen of the Union."

The Fernandina Floridian notes a great diminution of northern visitors to that state. As a good part of the income of many Floridians is obtained from northern consumptives, this cessation of travel will result in a financial crisis among hotel and boarding house keepers.

The San Francisco Mirror says: "out of nearly one hundred exchanges published on this coast, and received at this office, we can find not one that comes out openly, or otherwise, in favor of an independent republic. California is faithful to the Union."

PROPOSALS FOR PRIVATEERING.—The anticipations of a war with the secessionists are so fully realized in many minds, says the Philadelphia Press, that we are informed of grand propositions, on the part of certain boat builders and ship captains in this city, to inaugurate privateering expeditions so soon as hostilities shall commence. It was reliably rumored yesterday afternoon that most of the coasting vessels, now leaving this city, are armed with cannon and ammunition. Such tidings smack of war.

Sombody having said that the cannon with which South Carolina intends to destroy the Union is Bu-chanan, the Norwich Bulletin responds: "Yes, and that's the cannon everybody wants to see discharged."

The snake has been quite appropriately adopted as the device on the secession banner. It is the shape which the devil took to cause the loss of Paradise to our race.

The murderer of M. Pornsot, the French Judge, who was found dead in a railroad car, has been discovered, but not arrested. He is one Charles Jud, who recently killed a Russian physician in very nearly the same manner.

A mail carrier in Crawford county, Iowa, was chased by wolves a few days since, and finally ecrapelled to take refuge in a tree, where he remained until morning, half frozen and frightened nearly to death. The savage beasts growled around him until about daylight, when they took their departure. The carrier's horse was pursued by a portion of the pack, and is supposed to have been eaten by them.

☞ Exchange is again up to 8 per cent premium, in Chicago.

Should the terrible conflagrations that are sweeping over the country in all directions prove as frequent and disastrous for a twelve month to come as they have during the last eighteen months, very many of the small Fire Insurance Companies, having their agents scattered throughout the west, must go to the wall, there is no salvation for them. If you would be safe, safe beyond peradventure, always insure with companies that are known to be sound. Such, and such only, are represented at

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,			$570,383 43

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Amalgamation of Languages.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words in other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming particularized in connection with Mr. Spaulding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Anaemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper.—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

Bridget.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.—Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his glue, headache will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Fact Worth Knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

Cephalic Pills
CURE
Sick Headache!
CURE
Nervous Headache
CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

2d. The place of residence of each creditor, if known to him, such insolvent, and when not known the fact being so stated.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered by the undersigned circuit judge as aforesaid, that all the creditors of the said John T W Murray, the said insolvent, show cause, if any they have, at the office of Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs, in the city of Janesville, on the 26th day of February, A D 1861, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why an assignment of the said insolvent's estate should not be made and he be discharged from his debts.
